Introduction

Unmasking The Hidden Legacy of Uncritical Race Theory (essay)

Implausible Digressions

Dear Fellow Conservative,

Critical race theory has taken our nation by storm.

For a long time, it had been mostly isolated to colleges and universities. But in recent years, it has invaded our K-12 schools, workplaces, state and federal governments, and even the military.

There's a good chance that you—or your children—have encountered it. And there's an even better chance that you didn't realize it.

That's because critical race theorists are really good at disguising their indoctrination. They use words like “diversity,” “equity,” and “inclusion” because those words sound harmless. And it can be easy for busy citizens—especially parents—to overlook such terms.

But those words have become key indicators of critical race theory. And they're not the only ones.

That's why I'm sending you this email today.

- Critics of CRT

- Universalize CRT (everything is CRT, such as diversity, race, etc.)
- Demonize CRT (create moral panic by citing Marxism, left wing, etc.)
- Create a solution in search of a problem (inciting white fears to stoke white supremacy and backlash; use CRT as a wedge issue)
